Terms and Conditions for SMS Banking

1. A registered customer will be issued with a PIN/Password which shall not be divulged by the customer to any other party.

2. As a SMS Banking customer a given telephone number will be registered with the Bank and in the event of change of the telephone number, the Customer will be required to register again for the new telephone number.

3. In the event of loss of the registered phone/SIM, the customer must immediately inform the Bank to disable the SMS Banking Service. The Bank will not be liable in any manner whatsoever, for any losses, damages, expense or detriment suffered or incurred by the customer as a result of the bank effecting any transaction or furnishing any information via the SMS Banking Service which may not have been originated by the customer, unless the customer had notified the Bank of the loss of phone or SIM, or any misuse thereof, prior to such transaction.

4. The customer's telecommunication service provider will be entitled to charge the customer at a rate or rates determined by such service provider for SM's (short messages) sent for this service which must be duly settled by the customer. The Bank takes no responsibility for such settlement.

5. The customer shall from time to time receive promotional short messages (SM's) pushed by the Bank in respect of the Bank and its services or any other matter at the discretion of the Bank for which the customer will not be charged a fee. By registering and using this service the Customer agrees to receive such short messages pushed by the bank.

6. The Bank will not be responsible or liable for non availability of the service due to disconnection of telephone facility as a result of non-payment of the telephone bill or any reason whatsoever which will automatically disable the customer from using this service.

7. All messages by the customer shall be sent in the format as prescribed by the bank from time to time. The Bank may or may not carry out such instructions not sent in prescribed format and the Bank shall not be held responsible for carrying out or not carrying out any such instructions.

8. Neither the telecommunication service provider nor the bank shall be liable or responsible for corruption that may occur to the message during transmission or for any delay in responding to SM's or for contents of the messages under any circumstances whatsoever.

9. Neither the Bank nor the telecommunication service provider will be liable for loss of data or the message in full or in part or garbled or incorrect messages which may not be implemented by the bank.

10. This service is provided on an available basis and the Bank and/ or the telecommunication service provider will not be responsible for any losses, damages or inconvenience customer may incur due to break down or non availability of the service at any time, or from time to time.

11. This service is available subject to all laws, rules and regulations of Sri Lanka and the other general terms and conditions applicable to banking transactions. The bank shall therefore have the right at any time/s to refuse to or not carry out any instruction/s of the Customer if reasons exists which in the opinion of the Bank justifies such action. The bank shall be entitled at it's absolute discretion to discontinue or bar any customer from using this service if reasons exists which in the opinion of the Bank justifies such action.

12. The bank reserves the right to amend, change, add to, or delete from these Terms and Conditions or replace them in entirety from time to time which shall be binding on the customer. The customer by continuing to use this service agrees to be bound by and abide by all such changes, amendments, additions or replacements.
